CONSTITUTION DAY ON THE MALL EVENTS

Sunday, September 16, 2007 (Tentative Schedule Below)

This is a non-partisan, non-political Constitution Day event devoted solely to a great public celebration of The Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights. This event is free, open to the public, and held each year on the Mall on the Sunday immediately before September 17, which is the day the U.S. Constitution was signed in 1787.

- 11:45 a.m. Opening Ceremonies: Fife & Drum Corps, Swearing-in of New U.S. Citizens
- 1:30 p.m. Public Readings - Excerpts from Magna Carta, and the Entire Constitution of the United States and the Bill of Rights
- 2:30 p.m. Address by Colonel Richard E. Cole, Doolittle Tokyo Raiders of World War II
- 3:00 p.m. Fife & Drum Corps Leads "Children's Fun Walk" Around the Mall
- 3:30 p.m. Games for Children & Book Fair (to 6:45 p.m.)
- 5:00 p.m. Afternoon Music on the Mall
- 6:30 p.m. Closing Ceremonies, Music and Singing by the Audience (God Bless America, America the Beautiful & Auld Lang Syne)
- 7:00 p.m. Constitution Day Celebration Concludes.

Please visit our web site for time & event updates: www.National-Education-Project.org

For the Kids (and it's all free):

- Face Painting, Juggling Clowns & Magicians
- Bottles of soap bubbles & wands
- A small American flag for each child
- Commemorative Constitution Day wristbands
- Pocket-size copies of The United States Constitution
- Copies of the National Education Project's "Three Constitutions" poster, and
